

Reteaching Activity

Canada has a free enterprise economy that is similar to that of the United States, with whom it shares the world's longest undefended border. As in the United States, different economic activities are featured in different parts of the country.

DIRECTIONS: Completing a Table Read each sentence below the table. Each sentence describes an economic specialty in a particular region of Canada. Write each statement in the box beside the region it best describes.

ECONOMIC REGIONS OF CANADA
Eastern Canada
Quebec
Ontario
The Prairie Provinces
British Columbia

- Some of the world's largest reserves of oil and natural gas are found in Alberta and Saskatchewan.
- Toronto acts as Canada's chief manufacturing, financial, and communications center.
- Halifax operates as a major shipping center year-round.
- Montreal is a major financial and industrial center, as well as an important port on the St. Lawrence River.
- Vancouver serves as the major Pacific port in this region. Thick forests also blanket this province, making it the world's leading producer of newsprint.